Scout Law Candle Ceremony

(12 Scouts line up and each light a candle as they explain their point of the Scout Law. This should be deliberate, unhurried and with serious manner.)

SPL: This green candle symbolizes the Spirit of Scouting. Our troop will now illuminate the 12 points of the Scout Law.

SPL: A Scout Is Trustworthy.

Scout 1: A Scout's honor is to be trusted.

If he were to violate his honor by telling a lie, or by cheating, there may be serious consequences.

SPL: A Scout Is Loyal.

Scout 2: He is loyal to all to whom loyalty is due: his Scout Leader, his home, his parents, his church, and his country.

SPL: A Scout Is Helpful.

Scout 3: He must be prepared at any time to save a life, help injured persons, and share the home duties. He must try to do at least one Good Turn for somebody every day.

SPL: A Scout Is Friendly.

Scout 4: He is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout. He is especially friendly to new kids and those who need a friend.

SPL: A Scout Is Courteous.

Scout 5: He is polite to all, especially to women, children, the elderly, and the weak and helpless. He must not take pay for being helpful or courteous.

SPL: A Scout Is Kind.

Scout 6: He is a friend to animals. He will not kill nor hurt any living creature needlessly, but will strive to save and protect all harmless life.

SPL: A Scout Is Obedient.

Scout 7: He obeys his parents, Scoutmaster, Patrol Leader, and all other duly constituted authorities. If he thinks a rule is unjust, he will work to change the rule rather than just disobeying it.

SPL: A Scout Is Cheerful.

Scout 8: He smiles whenever he can. His obedience to orders is prompt and cheery. He never shirks nor grumbles at hardships.

SPL: A Scout Is Thrifty.

Scout 9: He does not wantonly destroy property. He works faithfully, wastes nothing, and makes the best use of his opportunities. He saves his money so that he may pay his own way, be generous to those in need, and helpful to worthy causes.

SPL: A Scout Is Brave.

Scout 10: He has the courage to face danger in spite of fear and to stand up for right against the peer pressure of friends or the jeers or threats of enemies. Defeat does not down him.

SPL: A Scout Is Clean.

Scout 11: He keeps clean in body and thought, stands for clean speech, clean sport, clean habits, and travels with a clean crowd.

SPL: A Scout Is Reverent.

Scout 12: He is reverent toward God. He lets God's light shine through the way he lives his life.

SPL: Hello, my name is Sam Hoffman, the Senior Patrol Leader of Troop 72. Welcome to our Eagle Court of Honor for David Arneberg. Now I'd like to introduce our Scoutmaster -- please welcome Mr. Tom Arneberg.

Tom A: Thank you, Sam. Ladies and gentleman, Scouts and Scouters, good afternoon, and thank you all for coming to this Eagle Court of Honor. Your presence here today not only honors David and the other Scouts, but supports our troop and the whole Scouting movement.

I'd like to take a moment to recognize some of our special guests today: David's grandparents from Minnesota...Chippewa Falls Mayor Greg Hoffman...Menomonie Mayor Randy Knaack (who helped sing the National Anthem)...etc., etc.

And now it gives me great pleasure to be able to just SIT BACK AND ENJOY the rest of this program, thanks to our guest emcee. Please welcome our troop's sixth Eagle Scout, Air Force Academy Cadet Jasper Arneberg!

Jasper: To earn the Eagle Scout rank, every candidate must perform a special service project. This project must benefit a community group other than Scouting, must have lasting value, and must involve a lot of other people under the Eagle candidate's leadership.

David worked with Habitat for Humanity to lead a project building a backyard play-set for a home in Eau Claire. Here to talk about the project, please welcome the former Executive Director for Habitat for Humanity - Eau Claire, Mr. Timothy Haukeness.

Timothy Haukeness: (talk about project)

VIDEO: Jim Arneberg (no intro needed)

Jasper: Now we are privileged to hear from the mom who was the recipient of the play-set. Please welcome Ms. Olivia Wiltrout.

Olivia Wiltrout: (talk about the play-set)

Jasper: Our troop's very first Eagle Scout would've loved to have been here for David's big day, but for some strange reason he preferred to use his vacation time for his recent honeymoon. But we'll get to hear a quick video snippet from David's oldest brother, Ben Arneberg.

VIDEO: Ben Arneberg

Jasper: And now to give our keynote address is a man who has come on several Troop 72 campouts over the years, even though he lives 100 miles away. Please welcome David's Uncle, Paul Arneberg.

Paul A: (Keynote Address)

Jasper: Now you'll get a flavor of what it's like to be a Scout in Troop 72, as we watch a bit of history in the Scouting career of David. Sit back, relax, and enjoy David's Journey to Eagle.

SLIDE SHOW

(Award Presentation)

Jasper: (Here is where you can make your own observations and advice for David.)

Jasper: Honor guard, please escort the Eagle candidate to the stage.

(Honor guard escorts David to the front, where he stands facing the audience.)

Jasper: Before we finish the official Eagle award, we have a couple of very distinguished guests who would like to present their own special awards.

Please welcome, covering the 67th Assembly District, State Representative Tom Larson.

Tom Larson: (give award) (???)

Jasper: And now please welcome, representing the 23rd Senate District, State Senator Terry Moulton.

Terry Moulton: (give award) (???)

Jasper: David, The Boy Scouts of America constitutes one of the most wholesome and significant movements in history, and you have been counted worthy of this highest rank. Scouting has helped millions of boys, but fewer than 5% have made it to the top rung.

We all rejoice in your achievement. Your position, as you well know, is one of honor and responsibility.

Our country has had a great past. You are here to make the future greater. I charge you to undertake your citizenship with a solemn dedication.

Lift up every task you do and every office you hold to the high level of service to God and to your fellow man. But wear your Achievement with humility, ever mindful that the Eagle Scout is looked up to as an example. Build America on the solid foundations of clean living, honest work, service to others and reverence toward God.

Jasper: Honor guard, please escort the candidate's parents to the stage.

Jasper: Mr. Arneberg, you can now pin this Eagle award on your son.

(Tom puts pin on David.)

Jasper: David, now you can pin your mom and dad with the "Eagle Scout Mom" pin.

(David puts pin on his mom and dad, after which Mom and Dad are escorted to their seats.)

Jasper: And now for the official Eagle Charge. We would like all the Eagle Scouts in the audience to please stand and repeat the Eagle Scout pledge along with David.

Jasper/David/Eagles:

*"I thoughtfully recognize and take upon myself
the obligations and responsibilities of an Eagle Scout."*

"With the help of God, I will do my best to make my training an example."

*"My influence and my opportunities strongly count for physical fitness, for wholesome character
and for devoted citizenship,
in Scouting and in my community."*

"To this I pledge my sacred honor."

Jasper: (to Eagles in audience) Thank you; you may be seated.

Jasper: David, by the authority vested in me by the National Court of Honor of the Boy Scouts of America, it is my privilege and pleasure to officially declare you Eagle Scout. (NO PAUSE HERE!) Ladies and gentlemen, I present to you EAGLE SCOUT David Arneberg! (Spontaneous unplanned thunderous applause)

David: (short acceptance speech)

SPL: Ladies and gentlemen, thank you for attending our Court of Honor. Please stay around for some treats afterward. Now please stand for the closing prayer by our Chaplain's Aid.

Isaac Hein: (Closing Prayer)

SPL: Color Guard, retrieve the colors. Bugler sound. Two. This Court of Honor is now adjourned.
