

Eagle Scout Jackson Sedivy, son of Jordan & Joelle Sedivy, is a junior at Chippewa Falls High School. Jackson has led Troop 72 as Quartermaster, Patrol Leader and Assistant Senior Patrol Leader during his five years as a Scout. In addition to dozens of weekend campouts with the troop, and four years of attending summer camp with the troop, Jackson was elected to the Order of the Arrow, the “Honor Society” of Scouting, and spent a week at National Youth Leader

Training. For his Eagle project, he led a team in restoring the gymnasium flooring and trim at Christ Lutheran School, where he attended from kindergarten to seventh grade. Jackson has worked in the family business for years, selling fireworks and setting up rented tents. He drives his very own car that he worked and saved for. After high school, Jackson plans to attend college to study mechanical engineering.

is that there aren't enough of them.”

– Will Rogers

“I think the character that you learn in Scouting—working together, being honest with each other, being close-knit, and depending on one another on our camping trips and while doing things—all this builds character in a young man that he takes with him into adulthood and makes him a much better citizen. And that's why I've always wanted to help Scouting -- I think it's one of the best youth organizations that we have in this country.”

– James A. Lovell Jr., Apollo 13 Astronaut
