

WANTED: USED CELL PHONES AND INKJET CARTRIDGES. WHY? TO HELP SUPPORT JOSEPH LUDWIGSON'S TRIP TO WASHINGTON D.C. THROUGH PEOPLE TO PEOPLE WORLD LEADERSHIP FORUM.

Joseph Ludwigson, a middle school student in Chippewa Falls has been accepted into the People to People World Leadership Forum.

He will join a group of students in Washington, D.C., and be there from April 20 to 26, 2009, to study leadership skills and explore some of the United States' prominent monuments and institutions, including the Smithsonian Institute, Colonial Williamsburg, and the National Museum of American History.

Joseph will participate in small-group discussions and exercises to experience firsthand how to make decisions, build consensus, develop leadership strategies, and foster changes. High school academic credit will be awarded for participation.

Joseph was nominated and accepted based on his outstanding scholastic merit, civic involvement and leadership skills.

The program is coordinated by the People to People Student Ambassador Programs founded by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1956.

You can support Joseph by donating your used cell phones and inkjet cartridges while helping save the environment from toxic waste!

Reasons to help this cause:

- ▶ We're not asking you for cash donations!
- ▶ Donations of your unwanted cell phones and inkjet cartridges can mean support for our organization.
- ▶ You will be giving old technology new life and keep it from polluting our landfills. If improperly disposed of, one cell phone can pollute up to 132,000 liters of drinking water. Your unwanted cell phones and inkjet cartridges will be recycled in accordance with EPA regulations or refurbished and reused.
- ▶ Your donation may be tax deductible.

All cell phones and inkjet cartridges are accepted.
