Details: Don't miss our first cabin-campout of the season! We are returning to the "Sourdough" cabin at Phillips Scout Reservation, the one with the great stone fireplace in the middle of the wall. Camp Phillips is about an hour's drive up Highway 53, just past Rice Lake. Back by popular demand this year will be "Trash Can Turkey," where we will attempt to roast a turkey in an inverted trashcan covered with coals. Last year we cooked it WAY too long – although the insides were still edible (everything tastes better when you're camping), the outside was charred black. So this year we'll plan less cooking time and even check it once in a while. Patrols will cook side dishes. The goal is to create a pre-Thanksgiving feast better than Mom's! The PLC will be planning other activities, probably to include chopping wood, building fires, etc. We'll be home before the Packers' noon kickoff.

Retain the above information and return the form below with any money by 7:00 p.m. Monday, Nov. 5, 2007.
