

Activity: FORT RICE!
Location: L.E. Phillips
Dates: Fri-Sun, Nov. 12-14, 2010
Meet at: 5:30 p.m. Fri, CVBC
Est. return: 3:00 p.m. Sun, CVBC
Cost: $18 (5 meals @ $2.40; $6 cabin)

Emergency contact: Tom Arneberg's cell: 715-404-0582

Details: It's that time of year again when we give up the tents and hit the cabins! We're headed once again to the amazing L.E. Phillips Scout Reservation property (just west of Haugen, about 55 miles north of Chippewa Falls). We have secured the best cabin again – Fort Rice. This place is much bigger than any of the other cabins. It has FORTY BUNKS just in the upstairs! Not to mention four bedrooms on the lower level, with a huge kitchen and a big area for eating, games, and working on skills. To top it off, there are four towers (as pictured above) that have additional bunks. These are not heated, but if it's warm enough outside, or Scouts are brave enough, that is an option, too. A one-mile compass course may be on the agenda, for those who are not yet First Class. There's also talk of a ten-mile hike to fulfill one requirement of the Hiking merit badge. NOTE: We're returning AFTER lunch this time; the Packers have a bye week and don't play.

Retain the above information and return the form below with any money by 7:00 p.m. Monday, Nov. 8, 2010. We will be buying food that night at Mega. Unlike most trips, where each patrol cooks its own meals, we may combine as we have in past November campouts to have a big pre-Thanksgiving feast for Saturday supper, complete with the famous Trashcan Turkey, potatoes, stuffing, corn, and pumpkin pie. (This would be a GREAT trip to bring friends to! Plenty of room, awesome food, and great Scouting adventures await!)
