Details: We had so much fun on the CoBiRd (Cornell Bike Ride) a few weeks ago that the PLC wants to do another! This time we'll be heading south, and go a little further. We'll haul camping/cooking gear from Hardee's to Durand in the troop trailer, so the burden will be light. We'll be bicycling entirely on paved bike trails, on the Chippewa River Trail, through Eau Claire, and on to Durand. The trail is paved and flat, but it is about 36 miles each day, so boys should bring a bike in good working order, and should try to do a little conditioning before the trip. Also, helmets are mandatory (along with Troop 72 red "action" shirts). (We will be offering a 50-mile option on Saturday for those who want to ride a little further; that would fulfill one of the requirements for the Cycling Merit Badge.) You can eat breakfast at home, or at Hardee's if you arrive before 8:30. (If you've never gone 36 miles in a day, don't worry; it's easier than you think...we've had plenty of 11-year-olds able to make it, and even a couple 9-year-olds.) Unfortunately, the swimming pool will be closed for the season...but we may stop and take a dip in the Chippewa River. We'll be stopping at Dairy Queen near Carson Park on the ride home, and possibly at the DQ in Durand on Saturday, too, so bring money if you want extra treats. Bring a lunch from home to eat halfway on Saturday.

Retain the above information and return the form below with any money by 8:30 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 6, 2014.
