

Activity: THIRMICAT (THIRty Mile CANoe Trip)
Dates: August 6-9, 2022
Departure: 1:00 pm Saturday, CVBC
Est. return: 8pm Tuesday
COST: $40.00 (10 meals)

Emergency contact: Tom Arneberg's cell phone: 715-338-1407

Details: We're going to recreate our adventure of 2020, the "FORMICAT" (Forty Mile Canoe Trip), except that a closure of the landing in Danbury forces us to take out after 35 miles. We'll start near Trego, Wisconsin, and paddle the Namekagon River until it joins the St. Croix River and take that to Riverside Landing. We'll do all the vehicle shuttling and food shopping Saturday, and set up camp at the Gilles Cabin near Minong that night, so we can hit the river early Sunday morning. The costs are kept very low on this trip thanks to us being able to borrow canoes from L.E. Phillips Scout Reservation. This $40 should be the only money needed by Scouts, unless you want to bring some for snacks while traveling.

Retain the above information and return the form below with any money by 7:00 p.m. Monday, Aug. 1, 2022. P.S. – participants must have a medical form signed by a doctor, should have passed the BSA Swimmer test, and must meet the height/weight guidelines for a wilderness trip.
