Details: We're going to recreate our adventure of 2024, the "THIRMICAT" (Thirty-five Mile Canoe Trip), We'll start near Trego, Wisconsin, and paddle the Namekagon River until it joins the St. Croix River and take that to Riverside Landing. We'll stop at Walmart in Rice Lake on the way up to buy food for the trip. Then we need to drop off a chase vehicle at the endpoint, so we won't get on the river until afternoon. But we'll still have plenty of time to paddle to a campsite Monday night, and then have two full days canoeing and camping on the river before we reverse the process Thursday. To celebrate the last-ever campout for Troop 72, this one is FREE! But bring extra money to eat at Culver's in Rice Lake on the way home.

Retain the above information and return the form below with any money by 8:00 a.m. Monday, July 27. P.S. – participants should have a medical form signed by a doctor, should have passed the BSA Swimmer test, and must meet the height/weight guidelines for a wilderness trip.
